

SPACE EXPLORATION ROCKETRY

PROGRAM SUMMARY

This full-day program teaches participants about the purpose of space exploration with discussion covering its history, exciting careers, and the science behind launching rockets. Participants will design collector cards featuring their favorite space pioneer and learn about the different rocket parts as they build and launch their own rocket. This program in its entirety will satisfy the requirements for Scouts to earn their Space Exploration Merit Badge.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Build and Launch Rockets | Learn about Sciences behind Space Exploration |

Design an Inhabited Base Located within Our Solar System | Full Visitor Complex Admission Privileges

Targeted Audience: Boy Scouts and general public school/youth groups, grades 5-9

Availability: Call for Availability

Price*: $65 per person (plus tax)

Program Times: 9AM-4PM

Minimum Participants: 20

You may register individually but we require a minimum of 20 registered participants to host the program.

Maximum Participants: 30

JOIN THE JOURNEY
KennedySpaceCenter.com
855-433-4229

Kennedy
Space
Center
VISITOR COMPLEX

*Pricing subject to change