Daily Drop-Off and Pick-Up

Each camper will receive two (2) copies of a numbered placard for drop-off and pick-up. The adult who is picking up the camper must show this placard to Camp KSC staff every time the camper is picked up. If you lose the placard, the adult picking up must be listed on the Contact form as an authorized pick-up and provide a photo ID. Please note that it will take longer to pick up campers without the placard.

All Camp KSC arrivals are through the Main Entrance (“EXPLORE”) at Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex. All Camp KSC dismissals are through the ATX entrance behind the granite fountain to the right of the main gate. (This is also the location for Check-in.)

Morning Drop-Off: 8:00 AM – 8:25 AM

All campers must check-in with Education staff at the Main Entrance (“EXPLORE”) every morning.

- Drop-off is a park-and-walk-up procedure. To avoid a parking fee, please show your placard to the parking attendant. Park your car in any available space and walk up to the main gate.
- One adult must accompany the camper to the main gate every day, regardless of the camper’s age.
- Campers will pass through a metal detector and all bags will be checked. To speed up bag check, please bring only those things required for camp. Bags should not have more than two (2) pockets. Food is permitted, but cannot be in a hard-sided cooler.
- Campers should know their camp number (assigned at check-in) to speed up the process.
- Late arrivals: For the safety and security of our campers, the ATX doors are kept locked during camp hours (8:00 AM – 3:30 PM). While we will make every effort to accommodate late arrivals, we highly discourage arriving late as your camper will miss activities that will not be made up.

Afternoon Pick-Up: Monday–Thursday, 2:45 PM – 3:30 PM

Please show your placard to the parking attendant to avoid a parking fee. Park your car in any available space and walk up to the ATX doors. Bring the placard with you to pick up your child.

Lightning Storms

Afternoon thunderstorms and heavy rainfall are common in Florida during the summer months. We recommend that you carry an umbrella. In the event that there is a storm in the area, NASA may issue alerts to warn people to take shelter from lightning.

Only campers and staff are permitted inside the ATX Center during camp hours. We will not admit anyone into the building to wait out a storm. If there is thunder and lightning during your scheduled pick-up time, please wait in your vehicle until the weather clears.

For the safety of our guests and staff, campers are not permitted outdoors during a Phase 2 lightning alert. If they are not already in the ATX Center, they will shelter in place until it is safe to walk to the ATX Center. This may cause them to be dismissed later than their scheduled time.

Things to Know

Items Brought to Camp: Any items (lunch, medication, water bottle, etc.) that a camper brings with them to camp must be with them when they arrive each morning. We cannot accommodate items being dropped off at a later time.

Daily Medication: If your camper is required to take medication during camp session hours, provide the medication in its original packaging clearly marked with camper name, camper number, medication name and dosage instructions. Campers must carry their medication with them during the day.

Students with Special Needs: Camp KSC is for all kids interested in space exploration. We are in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accommodation. Please contact us to discuss any concerns you have about accessibility.

Illness or Injury at Camp KSC: The safety of campers is our top priority at Camp KSC; however, occasionally an injury may occur while at camp. Our trained staff will handle any issue requiring basic first aid. You will be notified at the end of the day if minor first aid was administered (e.g. Band-Aid or ice pack). If a more serious issue occurs that may interfere with the camper's ability to participate in camp, a staff member will call to discuss the camper's options with a parent or guardian. If a camper becomes ill, the nurse will call the parent to pick the camper up. Any camper sent home, may not return to camp until they are fever free and/or symptom free for more than 24 hours.

Rocket Launches: In the event of a scheduled rocket launch during Camp KSC hours, there is a possibility that all camp activities for the day may be canceled. If this happens, we will issue two (2) separate wristbands to be used as a limited admission tickets to Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex for the launch day. The camper will be permitted into the Visitor Complex by wearing their camp t-shirt. We will notify you as soon as possible if there is a confirmed launch attempt that would affect Camp KSC.

Daily Activities

Each team will participate in a variety of grade-appropriate activities including STEM challenges and simulators. See below for a description of these activities.

Teams

Camp Kennedy Space Center® is designed to give campers an age-appropriate experience. For this reason, campers are divided into the following teams based on their year of birth:

Pathfinder:	Birth date of May 2013 – June 2015
Spirit:	Birth date of May 2011 – June 2013
Opportunity:	Birth date of May 2009 – June 2011
Curiosity:	Birth date of May 2007 – June 2009
InSight:	Birth date of May 2005 – June 2007

Each team is composed of one or more groups, each led by one of our trained Educators. We will make every effort to accommodate requests for campers to be in groups with family/friends, but cannot guarantee. We will NOT be able to move a camper out of his/her age appropriate team level.

Activity Descriptions

All campers will participate in five days of activities at different locations throughout Kennedy Space Center. Specific activities will vary based on the camper's team. Please note: Kennedy Space Center is a working launch facility with many security restrictions – activities may be changed without notice due to launch schedules and daily operations.

Astronaut Training Experience (ATX)

Campers may train in three areas: Launch Operations, Mars Operations and Microgravity Operations.* For the Launch training, campers will be assigned a position in Launch Control or in the Orion spacecraft. The teams will be scored on their ability to work together to launch and dock their spacecraft while dealing with one or more emergencies. In the Mars Surface Exploration training area, older campers will take turns landing and driving on Mars in full-motion simulators and/or walking on Mars using virtual reality equipment. Throughout these experiences, campers will guide one another through the steps needed to complete different missions. In Microgravity training, campers will strap in to our one-of-a-kind microgravity chairs to experience the sensation of working in a frictionless environment.

Height/weight restrictions apply. Specific activities vary by team.*

Mars Base 1

Campers will complete a variety of activities on the Red Planet.* In the Base Operations Center, campers will work together to sustain the health and safety of the Base following the crash landing of an uncrewed supply ship. In the Engineering Lab, they will program and operate robots to complete different tasks. In our Botany Lab, campers will learn to grow vegetables using indoor gardening techniques.

Specific activities vary by team.*

Low-Earth Orbit

Campers will explore the many different programs NASA and its partners have created to allow humanity to live and work in the space closest to Earth. To gain a better understanding of NASA's ongoing commitment to both environmental stewardship and global technology, campers will participate in guided interactive explorations, scavenger hunts, STEM challenges, and simulators. Some of the activity areas* include the Rocket Garden, Heroes and Legends featuring the U.S. Astronaut Hall of Fame®, Journey to Mars: Explorers Wanted., Shuttle Launch Experience®, and the exhibits in Space Shuttle Atlantis®.

To the Moon and Beyond

Campers will explore the many different programs NASA and its partners have created to allow humanity to move beyond Earth's gravity into deep space. They will board KSC buses to visit the area surrounding the Vehicle Assembly Building with a stop at the Apollo/Saturn V Center for shows and activities in the facility. They will also complete an activity in the all-new Planet Play®.

Engineering Design Challenges

Campers will complete several hands-on engineering design challenges appropriate to their age group. After receiving basic instruction in one or more engineering principles, campers will work in teams to follow the Engineering Design Process (ask, imagine, plan, create, test, improve) to solve each of their assigned challenges. Specific challenges vary from year to year and from team to team.

STEM Challenges

Campers will complete a variety of challenges requiring teamwork and one or more STEM skills (science, technology, engineering, mathematics). Specific challenges vary from year to year and from team to team.

Food Service

Camp Kennedy Space Center will provide campers lunch and a snack prepared daily by the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex Catering Department. Lunch will be served in rotations from 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM. Campers will eat with their own team – siblings will not be seated together unless they are on the same team. Please make sure your camper has breakfast before dropping him/her off. Campers will have access to drinking water at every meal. Campers are encouraged to bring a reusable water bottle.

Scouts will need to bring their blue card with them to camp to be signed off on at the end of the week by our instructor.

Family Day

At check-in, each camper will receive four (4) admission wristbands for family and/or friends to attend the Family Day. If additional wristbands are needed, we may be able to accommodate since not all families need four wristbands, but we cannot guarantee that additional wristbands will be available.

Friday morning, parents should drop campers off at Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex during regular check-in hours, the same as other days.

Friday afternoon, we invite campers to act as tour guides for their family and friends, revisiting favorite exhibits and showing off what they have learned. Camp will dismiss early so that families have more time to explore the visitor complex.

Please park your car and walk to the ATX Center to pick up your camper(s) as usual. Remember, the pick-up time will be one hour earlier than on other days.

Please remember to bring your pick-up placard to pick up your camper!

You may then proceed to the main entrance for Security screening. You must be wearing your wristband to enter the complex. Show your wristband to the staff member at the turnstile. Campers do not need wristbands – their camp t-shirt and lanyard/name badge will serve as admission.

Your wristbands and camp badges act as limited admission tickets, allowing you to see Space Shuttle Atlantis®, Journey to Mars: Explorers Wanted, space films, Heroes and Legends featuring the U.S. Astronaut Hall of Fame®, the Rocket Garden, Planet Play, and other exhibits and attractions open until published closing time of the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex. You will also have the opportunity to browse for souvenirs in the Space Shop (10% discount for camp families wearing the wristband).

You must be wearing the wristbands for admission; they are not reusable or transferrable. Limited admission does not include bus tours.

Please check our website www.kennedyspacecenter.com for information about operating hours.

Education Team

Camp KSC is led by trained and certified teachers and educators. Camp KSC has strict standards for hiring and training qualified camp instructors. Every educator must pass an extensive background check and comprehensive interview process prior to employment.

Our educators receive special training on space program facts and history, simulator safety and operation, proper discipline techniques, and teaching strategies.

Behavior Policy

Camp KSC is an exciting environment where campers are encouraged to work together in teams and cooperative groups and to share in exciting activities designed to teach about the exploration of space. All Camp KSC participants are expected to follow certain guidelines to ensure a safe, fun, and respectful environment. Our Camp KSC Behavior Policy is simple – we expect our campers to:

Have fun, follow instructions from all camp staff, and respect yourself and others. Please show common courtesy to fellow Camp KSC participants and our camp staff by not using profanity or engaging in unsafe, illegal, disruptive or offensive behavior, including but not limited to bullying, using disrespectful or offensive language, being disrespectful to others using electronic device(s) other than the purpose of taking photographs. For your safety and the safety of others, please refrain from pushing, running or wandering off.

The Camp KSC education staff is required to maintain a safe and respectful environment for every camper. If a camper is not following the guidelines above, a series of steps will be taken:

Step 1 - Verbal reminder & review of Behavior Policy

Step 2 - Time-out from an activity

Step 3 - Removal from group, phone call to parent and dismissal for remainder of the day*

Step 4 - Dismissal from Camp KSC*

*Please note: Tuition is NOT refunded if a student is dismissed from Camp KSC for behavior issues.

Thank you for your cooperation and support of a safe and respectful camp environment!
